(Option 1)

You are managing your NDIS funding yourself. This is called Self Managing.

In this case, you pay the invoices from Aspire directly. An invoice is like a bill.

You have a Plan Nominee to help you. This is a person you trust, like a family member or friend.

Your Plan Nominee is: _____

The Plan Nominee pays the invoices from Aspire.

NDIA

(Option 3)

(Option 4)

A Plan Management Provider is managing your funding. This is a person or organisation that helps to manage their funding.

Your Plan Management Provider is:

They will pay the invoices from Aspire.

In all of these cases, the way the invoice is to be paid – such as via electronic transfer, cash or cheque – will be written in the Agreement.

And the time allowed to pay the invoice will be included as well. This might be 7 days, 14 days or more.

7. HOW TO CHANGE A SERVICE AGREEMENT

You and Aspire will need to agree about how changes can be made to the Service Agreement.

The changes need to be in writing.

You may need to sign a new document saying that you agree with the changes.

8. HOW TO END A SERVICE AGREEMENT

If you want to end the Service Agreement, you must tell Aspire.

You must let Aspire know before you want the Agreement to end.

Usually, in the Agreement, it will say how much time you must give them before the Agreement can end. This is called a notice period.

With your agreement with Aspire, you will need to give 6 weeks notice.

If Aspire wants to end the Agreement, we will tell you – and give you 6 weeks notice too.

Sometimes, an Agreement can end without a notice period. This could only happen if you or Aspire broke the Agreement in some way.

Let's look at an example.

Angus was upset because his support workers never turned up on time.

He made several complaints to his service provider. But the service provider didn't do anything to fix the problem for more than 3 months.

Angus decided to end the Agreement and find another service provider.
